EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The Boston Book Company takes account of stock during May, and as usual makes bargain prices of periodicals with a view to reducing its stock of periodicals, sets and volumes.

Annual Magazine Subject-Index for 1908.—This volume, though delayed by the printer, through no fault of ours, has now been issued and all libraries should consider adding it to their reference books. It is $3.00 net in cloth, octavo, 193 pages, and will be delivered free anywhere for $3.25. It covers 120 periodicals (especially on history, forestry, out-door life) no one of which is covered by "Reader's Guide" or "Poole."

Bulletin of Bibliography. All subscribers entered on our books up to July 1 next, will be entitled to the 1909 ANNUAL MAGAZINE SUBJECT-INDEX at one dollar less than the published price. Or to put the statement another way, we will send the BULLETIN OF BIBLIOGRAPHY free for 1909 to any library that will place an order for the Annual Magazine Subject-Index for 1909, to be published next January. Which way do you prefer? The list price will not be over $4.00 and we will take orders at that rate, agreeing to charge less if we find the volume can be issued for less. Order now.

With a view to still farther add to the usefulness of the BULLETIN OF BIBLIOGRAPHY and make it more indispensable to libraries we are going to have from time to time helpful articles on the purchase of periodicals, showing librarians how to treat offers made by dealers or in catalogues. This month we give a "warning" by Mr. F. W. Faxon as a result of his observations during a recent extended trip West.

The auction advertised by Messrs. C. F. Libbie & Co. is worthy of attention. (See back page.)

How many librarians care to receive a duplicate copy of the BULLETIN OF BIBLIOGRAPHY free with their paid subscription copy? Several have returned to us the extra copy and we are thinking of discontinuing the practice of sending the extra copy if it is not needed.

A WARNING TO LIBRARIANS.

By Frederick W. Faxon.

Beware of a man who has been going about posing as a librarian, or an intimate friend of librarians you know, or the nephew of some editor. He is a plausible talker and seems to have an intimate knowledge of the library work and of many librarians. He has secured "loans" from many, of from $2.00 to $20.00, "in order to get to the next city, where his money would be awaiting him," or because his "check came unsigned and he could not cash it."

Beware (unless you know thoroughly the periodical field) the dealers who offer to fill up the gaps in your sets and who send you part of the order and forget(?) the rest after you have paid them for the parts they have sent. They have supplied you for 50c the cheap and common volumes. They have promised the others at 50c, but cannot find them at any such price. They do not know, let us assume, but if you hold up the bills they will be quick to learn.

Remember that a big gap is easier to fill than two little ones, and less expensive in the end.

Beware of the foreign reviews, such as "Westminster Review," "Quarterly Review," "Edinburgh Review," which are often offered for sale by ignorant or unscrupulous dealers in the American reprint edition without mentioning that crucial fact. Before 1888 the New York editions of several English reviews were so condensed as to render the pagination entirely different from that of the original. In some cases an American volume number was given. "Poole's Index," through which practically the entire reference use of those sets comes, gives the paging of the original edition, and the voluming of the original. Hence it is very hard to use the reprint with Poole's Index.

When you see a catalogue offering these reviews very cheap, watch for the "N. Y." imprint. If no place is given and the volumes are said to be bound "two in one" that is a sure sign of the "reprint." Don't spend money to bind these even if they are donated!

These warnings I give as a result of my observations on a recent extended trip among libraries. It seems to me due to the profession to bring this matter of how to fill gaps in periodical sets and how not to do it, to your serious attention. Don't buy a part of what you need without reliable information as to the possibility and expense of getting the rest.

Explanatory. Inclusive pages of articles indexed are given making possible an accurate estimate of length. The volumes month and year are also given.

"il." means illustrated. "por.", "pors.", mean with portrait, or portraits. "Portrait" means portrait only, no article.

If an article concerning a person is marked "il." it means that among the illustrations there is no portrait, while "por." or "pors." would show that the only illustrations were portraits.

A colon after an initial designates the most usual given name, as per rule adopted by the A. L. A., and by both the Reader's Guide and Library Index.

Continued stories and fiction by notable writers have been included under name of author.
